Bedford Social News.

BEDFORD CITY, June 6.—Miss Eva Hawkins celebrated her birthday very delightfully Tuesday afternoon by entertaining a number of her girl and boy friends at her delightful home on North Bridge Street. Merry games and a dainty feast of cream and cake gave wings to the moments and brought all too soon the hour for adjournment. Miss Mattie Spencer, who will soon go elsewhere to live, was the guest of the honor.

Wednesday evening a very brilliant German was given by the young gentlemen at the Elk's National Home, the spacious hall of which was kindly tendered by the manager, Mr. Tumbelson, for the occasion. The dance was led by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. K. Burgwin, who introduced a number of beautiful figures. Music was furnished by a band from Salem. There were twenty couples participating.

Mr. Parker Lambeth has arrived from his home in Louisa, and is preparing to take possession of the fine farm he has purchased a short distance out. He will, among other pursuits of farming, engage in violet culture.

Miss Bessie Otey, of Bluefield, is the guest of Mrs. E. C. Burks.

Professor and Mrs. Armstrong, of the Lynchburg Woman's College, are occupying their cottage upon the slope of the sharp top peak of Otter.

Dr. T. P. Wise has left for New York to take a special course in medicine.

Robert Summerson, of Wise, Virginia, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Summerson.

Dr. H. B. Martin has sold his home and farm to Mr. James Frazier, of New York. Dr. Martin will purchase a home elsewhere in the county.

Mr. Charles C. Hatcher, a registered pharmacist, has accepted a position at Graham.

Montvale Social News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MONTVALE, VA., June 6.—Miss Elizabeth Rice, who has been attending school at this place, has returned to her home at Welch, W. Va.

Mr. T. H. Ferrell, having spent his annual vacation here, returned on yesterday to Roanoke city, his place of business.

Mrs. N. C. Luck and daughter, Mrs. Welburn, of Norfolk, left on Tuesday for Buchanan. They will be the guests of Misses Annie and Sue Douthett, whilst there.

Mr. Charles C. Hatcher and Mrs. Harry Rusher, are making a visit to Mrs. Alfred Woolfolk, in Louisa county.

Mrs. S. H. Price, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Woods, at Glen Wilton. Miss Lottie Price has returned from Staunton and will spend her summer vacation with her sister, Mrs. Milton Ferrell.

Mrs. Connor, of Union Point, Ky., is expected on Thursday to visit her Montvale friends. She will be the guest of Mrs. Bettie Rice this week.

Children's day at the Methodist Episcopal Church, on Sunday, was a great success. A handsome sum was realized for missions.

Christiansburg Social News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHRISTIANSBURG, VA., June 6.—

Mrs. Mary Mosby Thomas received the members of the Wednesday Club from 3 until 5 on Wednesday afternoon. After some discussion of club affairs, delicious strawberry cream, orange sherbert, chocolate and ice cream cake, cheese wafers and hot coffee was served.

Miss Mattie Linkous announced that she had a surprise for the guests. From a high heart of white eggs, forming a picture of the marriage ceremony, twelve guests were invited to draw the crimson streamers, from which were suspended tiny hearts on which were written Matthew 22:12, and the mystic letters which spelled T-H-O-M-A-S-I-N-C-A-R-E-Y.

Miss Linkous gave the date in a clever little rhyme composed by herself:

At last she's won,
But how and who, invited guests, 'tis
Not up to you.

After June seventeenth, to submit all facts.

Shields Lackey pays no bachelor tax.

The health of the bride was pledged with clever toasts.

Miss Mattie Monterey Thomas has been considered one of the most beautiful women in Virginia, and is noted as much for her charm of manner as her beauty. She is a niece of Colonel R. Trigg Mosby, and is a member of one of the most prominent families of Southwest Virginia. Mr. R. Shields Lackey, whom she is to marry, is a son of Dr. H. C. Mosby, of Irons, Va., and is general sales agent of the Allegheny Iron and Ore Company. The marriage will be celebrated at 9 P. M. on Wednesday, June 17th, at the home of the bride.

Misses Mary and Sadie Elliott entertained the members of the Young Girls' Euchre Club on Friday afternoon. The guests were Misses Mary Massie, of Pulaski; Mary Woolwine, of The Narrows; Gussie Cohen, of Louisa; Ruth Gray, Beatrice Calhoun, Anne Eoff, Edith and Semourall Fagg, Mary Miller.

Dr. and Mrs. John H. Thompson and little son have returned from an extended visit to relatives in Fredericksburg, Albemarle and Louisa.

Mrs. Allan L. Harless and Master William Harless returned Wednesday evening from a two weeks' visit to Mrs. H. C. Watkins, of Chesapeake city.

Miss Mary W. Henner, of Atlanta, Ga., has been here for some days and purchased some valuable draught horses from Colonel James Childress.

Miss Pearl Bays and little Miss Gracie Branner, of Charleston, W. Va., are guests of Mrs. T. S. Davis.

Mrs. Wallace Rollins is expected to return on Wednesday from a month's stay with her mother, Mrs. Collins, of Asheville, N. C.

Attorney John R. Johnson, Jr., has returned to Pikeville, Ky., after a visit to Captain and Mrs. John R. Johnson.

Mrs. Lula and Willie Halston, of Walnut Cove, N. C., arrived Monday from a two weeks' stay with their sister, Mrs. Frank Dunklee.

Mrs. Robert T. Elliott received the members of the Wednesday Club on Tuesday evening from 3 to 5. Misses Minnie, Bessie, Sadie and Mary Elliott served dainty refreshments. Mrs. W. D. Bryan was elected vice-president of the club. The guests of the club were Misses Marian Kasey, of Bedford City, and Miss Fannie White, of Salem.

Berryville Social News.

A Modern Philosopher Says:

That the real rewards of life go to the patient men—the men who are doing their work and holding their peace.

The store that's doing its work faithfully in any community MUST OF NECESSITY REAP ITS REWARD.

For nearly a quarter of a century this store has catered to the people of Richmond and vicinity, and to-day stands as the representative store of all the South.

Honest merchandise, up-to-date store methods, low prices and straightforwardness, both in its advertisements and salespeople, are the reasons for the store's success.

Mothers Will Be Interested in This News Concerning Baby Furnishings

The prettiest little White Pique Reefers you ever saw at the price are here for $1.

The collar is of all-over embroidery, and the finish of the coat is all you'd want at the price. Sizes 6 months to 2 years, $1.

White Straw Hats for little children; good quality straw, neatly trimmed with ribbon and flowers, $2.50.

Sun Bonnets, white pique, neatly made, 50c.

Rompers, of good quality blue chambray, trimmed with red; sizes 2 to 4 years, 30c.

(Second Floor, East.)

Exceptional Values in New White Goods

There's a low price wave surging through the White Goods market. Here are a few of the great bargains in thin, summery stuffs that it has brought to us:

Embroidered Swiss, 19c^{yd}

Thirty-five different designs in 29c and 39c fabrics. Fine, sheer cloth, with neatly embroidered dots and figures. An ideal goods for the hot weather dress.

French Lawns, 15c^{yd}

45 inches wide and exceptionally fine and sheer at this price—so good, in fact, that it's really difficult to distinguish between this quality at 15c and the ordinary kind at 25c.

Mercerized Batiste, 19c^{yd}

A yard wide; soft, fine and sheer. It launders splendidly, and is an exceptionally good wearer. Fact is, there's nothing in as sheer a fabric will give as good service at the price as this batiste.

Linen Suitings Special Values

Think of an all pure linen suiting, a yard wide, either in light or medium weight, for only 30c a yard. What a pretty suit can be made at such a little cost for material. 45 inches wide, 50c; and 90 inches wide Linen Sheeting, 85c yard.

600 Yards Platt Vals., 12 1/2-20 Yard

Edges and insertings to match, from 1 1/4 to 6 inches wide; regular values from 15c to 30c yard.

White and Ecru Filet Nets, 39c yard

40 inches wide, in plain and fancy designs; excellent values.

Laces Four Big Values for To-Morrow

There's a swiftly moving procession of good values coming in and going out of our Lace Department—the sales are surprising, even to us, who naturally expect a quick movement. Come to-morrow morning if you'd be sure of securing any or all of these good things.

Silk Bargains for June

Every yard of the Silks mentioned to-day is offered under price. Some of the pieces, you'll notice, consist of but one pattern, which will be sold intact.

The fabrics are all of the wanted, desirable kinds, else there'd be no advantage to you in a sacrifice price.

Bordered Pongees, 75c yard

24 inches wide; tan grounds with graduated dots, in violet and old rose; former price, $1.25.

Black Peau de Cygne, 59c yard
19 inches wide; soft and lustrous; formerly 75c yard.

Black Taffeta, 59c yard
18 inches wide; a good black silk; formerly 89c.

Black Peau de Soie, 50c yard
19 inches wide; another splendid value; formerly 59c yard.

Checked Jap. Habutai, 29c yard
20 inches wide; in black and white checks and plaids; former price, 48c yard.

Checked Pongees, 49c yard

26 inches wide, in tan and white. The former prices were 85c and $1.00 yard.

Rough Suitings, 49c yard
24 inches wide; in navy blue with white dots. Original price, 59c yard.

Striped Mandarin Silk, $1 yard
Only one pattern of this silk, 15 yards, Copenhagen blue, 24 inches wide; formerly $1.50 yard.

Robespierre Silk, $1 yard
But one pattern of this fabric, 15 yards, in amethyst (or, as it is sometimes called, raspberry). Our former price, $1.25 yard.

(Main Floor, East.)

75 Pieces China Matting, 25c yard

This is Matting that we can heartily recommend as the best value imported from China to sell at 25c (which includes laying).

Well selected, heavy straw, excellently woven, in stripes, checks and plaids of green, blue and red.

You'll not make any mistake in selecting this grade for good, hard service at a low price.

(Third Floor, Sixth Street.)

Cool, summery hangings of various kinds that will add immensely to the looks of the home and not cost you much.

Muslin Curtains, three yards long, cluster tucks, full ruffle, 50c pair.

Plain Muslin Curtains, cluster tucks, hemstitched ruffle, $1 pair.

Muslin Curtains, figured and dotted, hemstitched ruffle, $1.10 pair.

Net Curtains, flat or ruffled, 3 yards long, white or Arabian, $1.50 pair.

Curtains

Cheap in Price, But Good

French Ruffle. Net Curtains, lace edge, double row of insertion, $2 pair.

Barred Muslin Curtains, fine sheer weave, Vandyke edge, $2.

La Reve Curtains, 3 yards long, white or Arabian, $2.25 pair.

Arabian Cloth is an ideal drapery fabric for summer use, full line of colors, 25c yard.

(Third Floor, West.)

Every Day Trousers and Play Suits for the Boy

"Built for Service" can be truthfully said of these garments.

Kickerbocker Trousers, in medium and dark gray worsteds, checks, stripes and mixtures—ideal for knockabout wear, 79c.

Rough Rider Suits, military style, shoulder straps, pockets, etc.; extra quality khaki cloth, $1.45.

Indian Play Suits, including trousers, coat and headgear, trimmed with Turkey red, $1.60.

(Second Floor, West.)

Lawn and Linerie Waists, 93c

Quite a number of styles, originally retailing as high as $1.95.

The Waists are mostly in white, though some have colored figures in pink, blue and lavender.

The sale is in line with our policy of a quick clearing up at a sacrifice of price as soon as assortments become broken from any cause.

(Second Floor, West.)

Fine China for June Brides

Every item advertised to-day is at an unusually low price. Some of the China we bought at a special sale—the rest of it is our own exclusive importation, which means that our retail price is at least 20 per cent. under ordinary figures for the same class of merchandise.

China Cabarets, large size, lobster handles in gold and red, assorted decorations; $2.50 value, $1.50.

Chocolate Pots, fine China, beautifully decorated, assorted shapes; $8 value, 50c.

Cake Plates, Salad Bowls and Cabarets, some hand-painted; best values we've ever had at the price; $1.50 and $1.89 values, $1.00.

Hayland Ice Cream Sets, thirteen pieces, white with incrustated gold border, $17.50.

Ice Cream Sets, fine Austrian china, thirteen pieces, delicate, green border, $5.60.

Berry Sets, Japanese china, seven pieces, white, heavy raised gold work effects, very rich, $5.00.

Chocolate Sets, white and gold, new decorations, $7.50.

Japanese Umbrella Stands, richly decorated—one of the most appropriate presents you can give, special value, $4.50.

(Basement, East.)

Hand-Embroidered Shirtwaists, Corset Covers and Centrepieces

A Third to a Half Under Price

(Art Needlework Department.)

Sample pieces, showing the finished article made up according to the pattern given with our package materials. There's only one of each style.

The Shirtwaists retailed for $5 and $5.25. Some of them daintily embroidered in pink and blue, now $2.08.

The Corset Covers are in one or three-piece garments; originally $5 and $5.25; now $2.08.

Duchess, Princess and Irish Lace Centrepieces, 36 inches round; originally $15 to $22.50, now $8.08.

Lovers of dainty embroidery will be well repaid by a visit to this department to-morrow.

(Second Floor, Sixth Street.)
